

DOHERTY NUTRITION: DIETETIC INTERNSHIP

ABOUT THE COMPANY: Doherty Nutrition is a small and quickly growing private practice that provides nutrition counseling and consulting services in the North Dallas area. We provide nutrition services that range from individual counseling, group classes, public speaking engagements, and consulting projects. We are on a mission is to take the stereotype of “diet” out of dietitian and make working with a dietitian simple, fun, and realistic.

ABOUT THIS POSITION: Doherty Nutrition’s dietetic internship program offers clinical, reimbursement, consulting and outpatient counseling experience. With the support of our staff, interns revived individualized training to enhance their knowledge and prepare them for hands on experiences. Most of our rotations will take place at the Addison Doherty Nutrition office in addition to flexibility to working from home.

To apply for the our program, all applicants must submit the following information:

- A current resume
- A one- to two-page cover letter stating:
 - Career objectives
 - Leadership experience
 - Volunteer work
 - Relevant work experience (health care-related, if any)
 - How the Doherty Nutrition dietetic internship program can help you to accomplish your career goals
- Your specific internship criteria